Good Morning Alex

Just read your reply to John.

Based on the reply its not hard to see why LGNZ felt they could enter into the MOU with Government over three waters without consulting its members.

You don't have the mandate and while it's a journey you might want to take a large number of mayors wont be on the bus with you.

Hi Team

Important that we keep this civil and lets not fall apart –? it serves no purpose.

Going back to John's original email. Thank you John for the invitation. I have a lot of time for former Christchurch Mayor Garry Moore and am interested to hear what he has to say. Happy to join the Zoom at 5pm –? I have an open mind to all ideas.

Thanks.

Kia ora John

I am not sure how this suggested meeting is a credible path to talking about the future.

I am committed to building a sound future for local government, local governance, community wellbeing and leadership in place-making via the process that the sector has worked so hard to put together. LGNZ is leading important conversations, mandated by National Council, about how to influence direction of reform relating to governance, local voice, resource planning and accountability that we all have a responsibility to lean-in to and that's where I am focussing my energy.

Good luck but I won't be joining you on this call.

Thanks Sean

As important as the discussion is, I'd prefer not to lose a day and a half to this.

Am looking at coming up for the meeting on the 4th, but if there's a desire for a combined zone discussion in advance of that I'd prefer it to be done remotely.

Evening all

I will be an apology as I have council on the 4th. I concur with Gary K on this and while I cannot attend in person I would be available to observe or participate via a link but realise that could be difficult to do.

Hi Sean,

How are these meeting dates being determined? The continual short notice and busy-ness for many of us makes attendance very difficult. I know you can't make a time that will suit everyone, but if there are no options, then yet again I, for one, have to be an apology.

Cheers,

Subject: RE: Heads of Agreement Partnering Commitment to Support Three Waters Service Delivery Reform

Importance: Normal

Sensitivity: None

Hi Mayor Sandra.

The people of Westland will deliver their position via a referendum as to opt in or opt out.

If its opt out and Govt decide to mandate the seizure of their three water assets we will be pushing back.

If its opt in no problem.

What process was followed for LGNZ to agree to the conditions in this document ?

Have a missed our Westland input ?

Regards

Subject: Re: LGNZ meeting 3 Waters meeting today

Importance: Normal

Sensitivity: None

Kia ora Bruce

The comment that we keep hearing from the same few voices over and over again is a bit rich.

Or indeed to be accused of condescension by someone comparing us to their own ten year old.

But here's a childhood analogy. This whole thing reminds me a bit of your mate in high school who tells you he has a new girlfriend, but that you wouldn't have met her because she lives in Canada.

We were promised a popular revolt from within the organisation, and it didn't happen. Now we're told that they're just the silent majority, the most political clutching at straws.

What I've heard - both at our zone meeting and earlier this week - is broad agreement that;

- a. Internal communication around the Heads of Agreement could have been handled better (likewise communication to and from the Steering Group);
- b. A commitment from LGNZ to do better in this regard with future discussions (that are only enabled by the HoA framework);
- c. A shared set of concerns about the government's water reform programme (that have been expressed by LGNZ as a collective and many councils individually);
- d. That trying to tear up or relitigate the Heads of Agreement at this point would be an act of bad faith, and seriously impede our ability to influence subsequent legislative reform (of which there is plenty).

There didn't appear to be any groundswell to push LGNZ to focus its advocacy solely on opposition to water reform at the expense of everything else we're trying to achieve.

And given that there isn't a single view of the membership, and many members have spoken in favour of the general direction water reform is heading, why would anyone expect that to be the case?

Nobody is asking you to back down, or do anything differently in your district. The HoA is explicit in allowing for all members (individually) to respond as they see fit for them.

Agree with all the other comments that have been made around unity, asides from where they're intended as a synonym for acquiescence.

Naku noa, nā?

Aaron

Subject: RE: LGNZ meeting 3 Waters meeting today

Good Afternoon Stuart and Susan.

Our Council and Community are totally opposed to the current three waters proposal. Yes we have engaged with the community.

The meetings that have been held remind me of my son seeking to stay out after 10pm a few years ago. I had said no and his response was that he clearly had not given me enough reasons to say yes and he continued unsuccessfully to try and reverse my position.

My view is that's what DIA and LGNZ have been doing with the same result.

The meetings result in the same people having their say sometimes in an aggressive or condescending manner. They often express their own views but not their communities who complain they have not been part of the debate.

Like Helen my question is will LGNZ represent councils that opt out?

What will LGNZ do when they find out this is the majority of Councils ?

Is there work being done on an orchestrated pushback both legal and public should the Minister Mandate? We need to know as if the answer is no then the Councils that are out can continue to work together to pushback.

Dan Gordon was bang on, Helen Worboys asks the right questions, an answer to them is necessary as it will determine our councils future decision making.

Regards

Hi Stuart and Susan

Thank you for organising the zoom meeting this morning.

It confirmed the wide range of views of different Councils around NZ. It is unrealistic to expect all Councils to agree. I note that we only heard the views of approx. 26 Councils out of 67 Councils this morning.

Our Council is not saying what is right for other Councils. We don't expect other Councils to say what is right for our Council, and the significant number of Councils with a similar view to ours.

MDC is supportive of the suggestions from Mayor Dan Gordon. We expect LGNZ to represent the views of the significant number of Councils that have the same view as MDC. We also understand that LGNZ needs to represent the views of other Councils as well.

Our Council and community totally oppose the proposed 3 waters reform in their present format. We consider that it would be difficult, if not impossible, for LGNZ to represent our views when LGNZ had agreed to not actively oppose the reforms. Our group of Councils requires representation.

We look forward to hearing back from LGNZ as to a suggested way forward and whether or not LGNZ will be representing Councils with the same views as ours.

Cheers

Helen
